

MOBILE FOOD MARKET

A Year in Review

An overview of our efforts to bring healthy, affordable food into Halifax communities in 2020

The Numbers: Food

In 2020, we delivered 163,968 pounds of healthy food into homes within the HRM. That's more than triple the amount of food we distributed in 2019!

The Numbers: Collaboration

We saw so many community members offer their time, skills, and resources over this year. For the majority of these individuals, it was their first time volunteering with us.

Community organizations across the HRM knew how COVID-19 was increasing food insecurity and were quick to find creative ways to support the populations they serve.
